GREAT LAND SALE IN BOYLE COUNTY

Col. Ike Dunn's Real Estate
Agency Makes the Sale of
Its Career

(Danville Advocate)

I. M. Dunn Real Estate Agency, of Danville, this morning made the record-breaking land sale of its existence eclipsing anything heretofore held in Boyle county, when they sold the Williams farm for more than eighty thousand dollars. Tracts one, two and three were bought by Mr. J. M. Cress, prominent Lancaster pike farmer, and Mr. Thomas Hendren, well known Garrard county citizen, at $376.50 an acre. These combined tracts embrace a fraction over one hundred and twenty-eight acres. Tract number four was purchased by J. Lee Murphy, the well known Hedgeville capitalist, at $300 per acre. This tract embraces about fifty acres. Before the various tracts were blockaded the residence and sixty acres were offered and the high bidder was Mr. J. M. Cress, whose bid was $416 per acre. The Shelby farm of 107 acres was bought by Mr. Price Elliott, a substantial Lincoln county citizen.

Col. I. M. Dunn was on the block and the way he handled this sale throughout stamped him as the premier land auctioneer of Kentucky. The attendance at the sale was the largest that has been seen in this section in months. The large avenue, roadsides and lots were filled with automobiles and people. There were a large number of bidders. It was the universal opinion of the great crowd, so far as the Advocate reporter could learn, that the sale was one of the best from every point of view ever conducted in Boyle county.

Col. Dunn's description of the place, his touching reference to the sacred blue grass soil and the Old Kentucky home characterized him as not only Kentucky's leading auctioneer, but as an orator in the top class. This is the second time this farm has been sold in five generations, the Bruce family having owned it for years before its sale to Mr. W. D. Williams. Col. Dunn touched on the Kentuckians who have located in Mississippi, Alabama and other southern states and referred to the fact that most of them return to the Blue Grass better satisfied than ever before. A number of returned Kentuckians were bidders today, having had their experience with the mud roads of the south and the blue soil of Ohio which hold water like a bucket.

The I. M. Dunn Agency, composed of Col. I. M. Dunn, Mr. Joseph Jennings and former Sheriff B. G. Fox, ranks at the front as real estate dealers and their services are being sought by those having property for sale not only in Kentucky, but in adjoining states. The Advocate congratulates these gentlemen on their unprecedented success and takes pleasure in assuring the public with their fair dealing and impartial treatment of all bidders and their policy absolutely to handle no sale where there are to be by-bidders guarantees their continued rise in the public estimation.

LET MINERS SETTLE IN THEIR OWN STATE

(By Associated Press)

Cleveland, O., Aug. 19.—The miners' central competitive district today unanimously voted that miners in Ohio, Indiana, Illinois and Western Pennsylvania to seek and make supplementary and separate contracts with the operators. This practically disrupts the central field as a basic point, and follows the failure of operators last night to agree on the miners wage demands.
